

SECTION. 1. That the Governor of North Carolina be and he is hereby authorized, empowered and requested to appoint a special commission of seventeen citizens of the State of North Carolina, as hereinafter classified, for the purpose of studying the existing laws of the State of North Carolina relating to the production, processing, handling and distribution of milk and other dairy products and inquiring into the regulations in the various counties of the State and likewise studying the nature and application of laws and regulations in other jurisdictions, and likewise studying the possibilities of further and larger production of milk in the State of North Carolina, with added safeguards for the protection of the public; and that such commission so appointed by the Governor shall be known and designated as North Carolina Milk Commission; that the commission so appointed by the Governor in pursuance hereof shall have included in its membership the following:

Appointment of special commission to study laws relating to production, processing, etc., of milk.

Commission known as "North Carolina Milk Commission."

Members.

The head of the dairy division, State Department of Agriculture;

One farmer actively engaged in the production of milk;

One person actively engaged in the processing and distribution of milk;

One representative from the dairy manufacturing department of State College;

One representative from the dairy production department of State College;

One manufacturer and distributor of ice cream;

One producer and distributor of milk;

One county health officer;

A member of the State Board of Health;

A producer and distributor of raw milk;

One person representing city or county government in North Carolina;

One licensed veterinarian, who is a member of the State Veterinary Association;

The president or some other official representative of the North Carolina Medical Society;

Three representatives from the public at large who are not engaged, directly or indirectly, in producing, processing, or distributing milk or other dairy products;